PREFACE.

Although the New Brunswick Theological Seminary is the oldest in the United States, this is the first complete biographical record of its Alumni. The triennal catalogues from 1839 until 1855 contained lists of the Alumni from 1812 with addresses. A similar list from 1786 with a few items concerning the ministry of the graduates is found in an appendix to the Centennial Volume of 1884. The need of such a Biographical Record would have been felt keenly long ago save for the efficient service rendered by the four editions of Dr. Edward T. Corwin's Manual of the Reformed Church in America (1859, 1869, 1879, 1902). This useful volume contains not only most of the names in this volume but the names of all others in the ministry of the Reformed Church from its beginning. The compiler of the present volume wishes to express his thanks to Dr. Corwin for permitting him to make free use of the material in the Manual and for other valuable assistance. Yet, while the main body of this volume is mostly a rearrangement of material in the Manual, the compiler has searched for many other items, in the Minutes of General Synod, the annual catalogues of the Seminary, the Alumni Catalogues of the colleges from which the students came, the Fraternity Catalogues, volumes relating to the ministry of other denominations, and other sources. He also sought to supplement this information by correspondence. The data concerning the living Alumni and former students are derived from their own statements except in the case of a few who did not answer inquiries or could not be found. Thanks are due to the large number who have aided in gathering this material.

The names of the graduates of each year appear first. After a horizontal line may be found the names of those who belonged to the class for a time but did not graduate from this Seminary. A few of these names are not in Corwin's Manual nor the annual catalogues, but are found in the Minutes of General Synod or the Matriculation Book of the Seminary. The asterisk indicates the names of those who have died. Those who graduated before 1850 are all so marked unless the compiler has knowledge to the contrary. After 1850, however, the asterisk is not placed by any name unless there is knowledge of the decease of its owner. In the statements of the pastorates, each charge is of the Reformed Church in America unless otherwise stated. Abbreviations have been avoided as far as possible.

It is impossible that such a book as this should be either entirely complete or perfectly accurate. The compiler regrets its imperfection in both respects and earnestly requests all friends of the Seminary to send him corrections and additions which may be used in a future edition.

PROFESSORS.

JOHN HENRY LIVINGSTON.

Dr. Livingston was born near Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 30, 1746. He was the son of Henry Livingston and Sarah Conklin and was a lineal descendant of Rev. John Livingston who preached with great power in Scotland in the first part of the seventeenth century and was banished for non-conformity. In 1663 he took refuge in Holland. In 1686 his son, Robert Livingston, removed to Columbia County, New York, where he had secured an extensive grant of land. Robert Livingston had three sons. The oldest, Philip, was the father of Philip Livingston, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and also of William Livingston, Governor of New Jersey. Robert Livingston's third son, Gilbert, was the grandfather of the professor.

Graduating from Yale College in 1762, Dr. Livingston studied law for two years in the office of Bartholomew Crannel of Poughkeepsie. He had a great ambition for worldly honor, but his health becoming impaired by overwork he was the subject of a profound religious experience which resulted in a consecration of his life to the Christian ministry. He determined to enter the ministry of the Dutch Church to which his parents belonged, rather than the Episcopal or Presbyterian, trusting that God would render him, "however unworthy and unfit for that arduous work, an instrument in His hand, to compromise and heal these dissensions, and raise the reputation and establish the dignity and usefulness of the Dutch Church in America." His lifelong conviction that this was God's work for him was abundantly justified. In preparation for his life work this able and consecrated young man sailed for Holland in 1766 and studied for three years under the distinguished theologians of the University of Utrecht. He was licensed to preach by the Classis of Amsterdam, June 5, 1769. On April 2, 1770, he was ordained to the ministry and assigned to the Church of New York. He was thus the second minister of that church who preached in the English language, Rev. Archibald Laidlie, D.D., LL.D., being the first. Before his return to America he presented a dissertation "De Foedere Sinaitico" to the University of Utrecht for which he received the degree of S.T.D. From the beginning of his ministry Dr. Livingston was the peacemaker between the Coetus and Conferentie parties in the Church. He commanded the respect of all and attained a position of leadership in the denomination which has never been held by any other of its distinguished ministers. Not only was he chiefly instrumental in healing the dissensions referred to but also in securing the independence of the American Church from the Classis of Amsterdam and forming it under a wise constitution. His pastorate in New York continued forty years (1770-1810). During the Revolution, however, his warm advocacy of the American cause required his removal from the city. In 1776 he resided at Kingston, from that year until 1779 at Albany, then for two years at Livingston Manor, and finally for two years more at Poughkeepsie and Red Hook. The next year after his return to New York (1784) the Provisional Synod elected him Professor of Theology. In this capacity he prepared many students for the ministry in addition to his arduous duties as pastor. After 1786 he spent his summers on Long Island, there continuing the work of instruction. In 1796 he removed the Divinity School to Flatbush at the request of the Synod because of the lower cost of board for the students. From this time he spent a part of each week in Flatbush instructing the young men and returned to New York to pursue his pastoral work. In 1804 the General Synod elected him permanent professor, and finally at the request of the Synod in 1810 he resigned his pastorate in New York and removed to New Brunswick, N. J., where he became President of Queens College and continued his work as Professor of Theology. Thus far he had given twenty-six years to the instruction of students for the ministry without compensation. Yet now he accepted the move to New Brunswick at great financial sacrifice and for fifteen years more continued his unselfish labors. In all nearly two hundred students were trained by him. Dr. Livingston died at New Brunswick, N. J., January 20, 1825.

HERMANUS MEYER.

Dr. Meyer was born at Bremen, Germany, July 27, 1733. He studied Theology at the University of Groningen. A man of the same name, residence Oldamptinus, who was matriculated at that University for the study of Theology September 10, 1718, may have been the father of our professor. At any rate the subject of this sketch is almost certainly the one who was matriculated September 6, 1757. In 1763 the professors of the University recommended him to the church at Kingston, N. Y. His pastorate there continued until 1772. In 1764 he was compelled by the civil authorities to take the oath of allegiance to Great Britain. This so incensed his consistory, who were of the Conferentie party, that finally he was shut out of his church. Yet he never lost the confidence of the Classis of Amsterdam, and for seven years he preached in private houses. In 1772 he accepted a call to become pastor of the churches of Totowa, Fairfield and Pompton Plains in New Jersey. He relinquished the Fairfield church in 1785 but continued to serve the others until his death in 1791 with marked success. In 1784 he was made Professor of Sacred Languages and in 1786 also Lector in Theology. He did not, however, resign his pastorate but continued to prepare young men for the ministry at his home in Pequannock (Pompton Plains). He received the degree of D.D. from Queen's College in 1789. Dr. Meyer died at his home, October 27, 1791.

SOLOMON FROELIGH.

Dr. Froeligh was born at Red Hook, N. Y., May 29, 1750. The family removed to Ulster County in his infancy and he passed his boyhood at Clove and Caatsban. He was converted under the preaching of Rev. Johanns Schuneman and prepared for the ministry under Dr. Dirck Romeyn at Schenectady and Dr. Peter Wilson and Rev. John H. Goetschius at Hackensack. In 1774 he was licensed to preach by the General Meeting of Ministers and Elders. In 1775-76 he served the churches of Jamaica, Newtown, Oyster Bay and Success, but his patriotism was so pronounced that he had to flee when the British entered Long Island. Indeed he narrowly escaped capture and was forced to leave his library and effects behind. At first he took refuge in Hackensack but later supplied the churches of Fishkill and Poughkeepsie (1776-80). He was pastor at Hillsborough and Neshanic from 1780 to 1786, but his longest and most important pastorate was over the churches of Hackensack and Schraalenburgh, which he served from 1786 until 1822. In addition to his duties there he served as Lector in Theology (1792-97) and then as Professor of Theology (1797-1822). Some of the most successful ministers of the denomination were trained in his parsonage.

Dr. Froeligh belonged to the Coetus or progressive party and at Hackensack he strove to harmonize the hostile elements in the church. For a time (1790-95) the efforts in this direction were crowned with success, but later many circumstances aggravated the strife until finally in 1822 Dr. Froeligh led a secession and with a few other ministers organized "The True Reformed Dutch Church." Dr. Froeligh was exceedingly rigid in his doctrinal views and he attempted to justify his secession by the charge that the Dutch Church had declined from strict Calvinism. His secession caused him to be suspended from the ministry and deposed from his professorship. In 1782 while Pastor at Millstone he had served as Tutor in Queen's College and from 1783 until 1810 as Trustee. The College of New Jersey gave him the degree of A.M. in 1774 and Queen's College that of D.D. in 1811. After his secession he continued as Pastor of the secession churches of Hackensack and Schraalenburgh until his death, which occurred October 8, 1827.

DIRCK (THEODORIC) ROMEYN.

Dr. Romeyn was born at Hackensack, N. J., January 12, 1744. He was the son of Nicholas Romeyn and Rachel Vreeland. Graduating from the College of New Jersey in 1765 he studied Theology with Rev. John H. Goetschius and was licensed by the American Classis in 1766. From 1766 until 1775 he was Pastor at Marbletown, Rochester and Wawarsing and from 1775 until 1784 at Hackensack and Schaalenburgh. In 1784 he accepted a call to the church at Schenectady and there his most important work was done during the succeeding twenty years. It was found inconvenient for the candidates for the ministry in the northern part of the Church to study in New York with Dr. Livingston or in Hackensack with Dr. Froeligh. Therefore Dr. Romeyn was appointed Lector in Theology in 1792 and in 1797 Professor of Theology. Nor were these the only contributions of this able and useful man to the cause of the Church and education. In the year of his going to Schenectady he declined an invitation to be Pastor at New Brunswick and President of Queen's College. The presidency of the college was again declined in 1791. He was deeply interested in the plan to establish a State University in New York and when this failed he founded an academy at Schenectady which grew into Union College. He declined to be the first president of this institution but he was truly its father. In 1797 Dr. Romeyn was President of General Synod. He was also Trustee of Queen's College from 1785 until his death, and received the degree of D.D. from that college in 1789. He died at Schenectady, April 16, 1804.

JOHN BASSETT.

Dr. Bassett was born at Bushwick in 1764. Graduating from Columbia College in 1786 he received his theological training under Dr. John H. Livingston and was licensed by the Synod of Reformed Dutch Churches in 1787. From that year until 1804 he served the church at Albany, from 1805 until 1811 the church at Boght in the Classis of Albany, and from 1811 until 1824 the churches of Gravesend and Bushwick. It was during his pastorate at Boght that Dr. Bassett assisted in Theological education by teaching Hebrew. This he did from 1804 to 1812. He was thus the first graduate of the Seminary to engage in theological instruction. He received the degree of S.T.D. from Williams College in 1804 and served Queen's College as Trustee from 1788 until his death. Dr. Bassett died in 1824.

JEREMIAH ROMEYN.

Dr. Romeyn was born in New York City December 24, 1768. He was the son of John Romeyn and Julianna McCarty and the grandnephew of Prof. Dirck Romeyn. His classical education was received at Dr.

Wilson's Academy in Hackensack and his theological with his great-uncle, Dr. Dirck Romeyn, and Prof. Hermanus Meyer. He later married the daughter of Dr. Meyer. He was licensed by the Synod of Reformed Dutch Churches in 1788 and had pastorates at Linlithgo (1788-1804), also supplying Upper and Lower Red Hook (1794-1806), and Harlem (1806-14). Later he supplied the churches of Schoharie Kill and Beaverdam (1814-17), and Woodstock (1817-18). He acted as Professor of Hebrew from 1804 until 1818 at Linlithgo, Harlem, Schoharie and Woodstock. He received the degree of A.M. from Queen's College in 1811. His death occurred in July, 1818.

JOHN M. VAN HARLINGEN.

Dr. Van Harlingen was born at Sourland (later called Harlingen from his uncle) in 1761. He was the son of Ernestus Van Harlingen and nephew of the distinguished minister, Rev. Johannes Martinus Van Harlingen (1724-95). He graduated from Queen's College in 1783 and studied Theology under Dr. Livingston. He was licensed by the Christian Synod of Dutch Reformed Churches in 1786. Thus his name appears as the first alumnus of the Seminary. He served the churches of Millstone and Six Mile Run from 1787 until 1795 but was without any permanent charge from 1795 until 1812. During this period he resided at Millstone and was a diligent student of scripture. He also often received students into his house and prepared them for licensure in Hebrew and Church History. After the removal of the Theological Seminary to New Brunswick and the resignation of Dr. Bassett as Professor, Dr. Van Harlingen was appointed Professor of Hebrew and Ecclesiastical History. He accepted the appointment as Professor of Hebrew and consented to teach Ecclesiastical History temporarily (1812-13). He received the degree of A.M. from Queen's College in 1789 and served as Trustee of the college from 1787 until 1813. After a year's faithful service as Professor, he died June 16, 1813.

JOHN SCHUREMAN.

Dr. Schureman was born near New Brunswick, October 19, 1778. He was the son of James Schureman and Eleanor Williamson. In 1795 he graduated from Queen's College and studied Theology with Dr. John H. Livingston. He was licensed by the Classis of Albany in 1801. After serving the church of Bedminster (1801-07) and later the church of Millstone (1807-09), he became one of the pastors of the Collegiate Church in New York City (1809-12). Finding the duties there too arduous for his frail health he accepted the position of Vice President of Queen's College and Professor of Moral Philosophy and Belles-Lettres. These offices he filled seven years (1811-18). In 1815 he was elected Professor of Ecclesiastical History, Church Government and Pastoral Duties in the New Brunswick Seminary and filled this position with acceptance until his death. For a time he was also Pastor of the church at New Brunswick (1813) but was compelled by his feeble health to resign. He received the degree of A.M. from the College of New Jersey in 1801 and from Queen's College in 1810. Columbia College gave him the degree of S.T.D. in 1816. He was a Trustee of Queen's College from 1800 until his death, which occurred May 15, 1818.

JOHN LUDLOW.

Dr. Ludlow was born at Acquackanonck, N. J., in 1793. In 1814 he graduated from Union College and served the college as Tutor one year (1815-16). His theological training was received from Rev. Andrew Yates and at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary. In 1817 he was licensed by the Classis of New Brunswick and was called to be Pastor of the church in New Brunswick. After two years' service in the pastorate he was elected Professor of Biblical Literature and Ecclesiastical History in the New Brunswick Seminary. This position he held four years (1819-23), when he resigned to become Pastor of the First Church of Albany. After eleven more years in the pastorate (1823-34) Dr. Ludlow became Provost of the University of Pennsylvania. He continued in this responsible position eighteen years (1834-52). Then he returned to the New Brunswick Seminary as Professor of Pastoral Theology, Ecclesiastical History and Church Government. Here he remained for the last five years of his life, at the same time acting as Professor of Metaphysics and the Philosophy of the Human Mind in Rutgers College. Union College gave him the degree of A.M. in 1817 and that of D.D. in 1827. He also received the degree of LL.D. from Rutgers in 1851. From 1819 until 1837 he was Trustee of Rutgers College. Dr. Ludlow died September 8, 1857.

JOHN DeWITT.

Dr. DeWitt was bron at Catskill, N. Y., in August, 1789. After studying at Union College three years he removed to Princeton and graduated there in 1809. For a time he studied law in the office of Peter Van Schaick at Kinderhook, N. Y. While there he was converted and determined to study for the ministry. For this purpose he studied with Dr. David Porter, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Catskill. He was licensed to preach by the Berkshire Congregational Association in 1811 and in 1812 was ordained as Associate Pastor of the Congregational Church at Lanesborough, Mass. In the following year he became Collegiate Pastor in Albany, and when the two Dutch churches in Albany were separated in 1815 Dr. DeWitt continued as Pastor of the Second Church until 1823. In that year he was elected Professor of Biblical Literature and Ecclesiastical History in the New Brunswick Seminary. In 1825 he was relieved from the Ecclesiastical History by the election of Dr. Selah S. Woodhull. During the academic year 1811-12 Dr. DeWitt had served Queen's College as a Tutor. He now became Professor of Belles-Lettres, Elements of Criticism and Logic in Rutgers in addition to his Seminary duties. He was also Trustee of the college from 1823 until 1831. Dr. DeWitt received the degree of D.D. from Union College in 1821. He died October 11, 1831.

PHILIP MILLEDOLER.

Dr. Milledoler was born at Rhinebeck, N. Y., September 22, 1775. He was the only son of John and Anna Milledoler, who had emigrated from the Canton of Berne, Switzerland, to New York City, but had been forced to leave the city by the approach of the British. He graduated from Columbia College in 1793 and studied Theology with Rev. Dr. Gross, Pastor of the German Reformed Church in Nassau street, in which he had been brought up. The German Reformed Synod ordained him to the ministry in 1794 and in 1795 he became the successor of Dr. Gross in the Nassau Street Church. After five years in this pastorate he removed to Philadelphia as Pastor of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church. Here he had a very successful ministry of five years and then returned to New York to assume the pastorate of the Rutgers Street Presbyterian Church. In 1813 he accepted a call as one of the pastors of the Collegiate Church and continued there twelve years. In 1825, upon the death of Dr. Livingston, Dr. Milledoler was elected his successor as Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the New Brunswick Seminary and also as President of Rutgers College. At the same time he served the college as Professor of Moral Philosophy. He continued as President of the college until 1840 and as Professor in the college and the Seminary until 1841. After his resignation from these offices he made his home in New York City. Dr. Milledoler was highly honored in the churches with which he was connected. Before the Seminary at Princeton was founded, the Presbytery of New York appointed him to prepare students in Theology. He was elected Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. In 1820 he declined the professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the newly established Seminary of the German Reformed Church. He was a Trustee of Rutgers College from 1815 until 1840. He received the degree of A.M. from Columbia in 1797 and that of S.T.D. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1805. He died on his seventy-seventh birthday, September 22, 1852.

SELAH STRONG WOODHULL.

Dr. Woodhull was born in New York City August 4, 1786, and graduated from Yale College in 1802. At first he studied law but soon turned to Theology which he followed under the instruction of his uncle, Dr. John Woodhull of Freehold, N. J., and later of Dr. Henry Kollock of Princeton. He was licensed by the Presbytery of New Brunswick in 1805 and served one year as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Bound Brook (1805-06). Then he accepted a call to become Pastor of the Reformed Church in Brooklyn. Here he continued until 1825. In 1814 he served for a time as Chaplain in the United States Army and from 1820 until 1825 he was Domestic Corresponding Secretary of the American Bible Society. In Septebmer, 1825, the General Synod elected him Professor of Ecclesiastical History, Church Government and Pastoral Theology in the New Brunswick Seminary. He also served as Professor of Metaphysics and the Philosophy of the Human Mind in Rutgers College. He received the degree of A.M. from Yale in 1805 and from Columbia in 1806. Union College gave him the degree of D.D. in 1822. After a few months of service he died in New Brunswick, February 27, 1826.

JAMES SPENCER CANNON.

Dr. Cannon was born in the island of Curaçoa in the Dutch West Indies, January 28, 1776. His father, William Cannon, was a sea captain. His mother having died at Baltimore, Dr. Cannon and his two brothers were placed in Dr. Wilson's Academy at Hackensack, N. J. Soon after the father was lost at sea. The brothers also died in youth. Dr. Cannon was educated at the expense of Mr. Elias Brevoort of Hackensack. He studied Theology with Dr. Froeligh in Hackensack, finishing his course with two months under Dr. Livingston. The Classis of Hackensack licensed him to preach in 1796 and he was settled as Pastor of the churches of Six Mile Run and Millstone from 1796 until 1807. The two churches being separated in that year, Dr. Cannon continued as pastor of the Six Mile Run church until 1826. He served also as Instructor in Ecclesiastical History in the New Brunswick Seminary for the year 1818-19 and in 1826 was elected Professor of Ecclesiastical History, Church Government and Pastoral Theology. This professorship he filled twenty-six years, at the same time serving Rutgers College as Professor of Metaphysics and the Philosophy of the Human Mind. He was a Trustee of the college from 1800 until 1852. He was President of the General Synod in 1813 and again in 1820. He received the degree of D.D. from Queen's College in 1811 and from Union College in 1819. His "Lectures on History and Chronology" were published in 1834 and his "Lectures on Pastoral Theology" were published after his death, in 1853. Dr. Cannon died July 25, 1852.

ALEXANDER McCLELLAND.

Dr. McClelland was born at Schenectady in 1794 and he graduated from Union College in 1809. He pursued his theological studies under the guidance of Dr. John Anderson of Weston, Penn., and of the distinguished Dr. John M. Mason. He was licensed to preach by the Associate Reformed Presbytery in 1815 and became Pastor of the Rutgers Street Presbyterian Church in New York City. After a ministry of seven years in New York (1815-22), he was elected Professor of Logic, Metaphysics and Belles-Lettres in Dickinson College at the instance of his former instructor, Dr. Mason, now President of the college. Here also he served seven years, resigning to accept the professorship of Languages in Rutgers College. After three years in this position (1829-32) Dr. McClelland was elected by the General Synod as Professor of Biblical Literature in the New Brunswick Seminary. Accepting this election, he continued to serve the college first as Professor of Oriental Literature (1833-40) and later as Professor of Oriental Languages and Literature, and of the Evidences of Christianity (1840-51). After nineteen years as Professor in the Seminary he resigned on account of impaired health (1851). He continued to reside in New Brunswick until his death. Dr. McClelland received the degree of D.D. from the College of New Jersey in 1818 and from Union and Dickinson colleges in 1830. His only publications were of a small volume called "Canon and Interpretation of Scripture" and a volume of sermons published posthumously in 1867. He died December 19, 1864.

SAMUEL ALEXANDER VAN VRANKEN.

Dr. Van Vranken was born February 20, 1792. He was the son of Rev. Nicholas Van Vranken, who was at that time Pastor of the church at Fishkill, N. Y. Entering Union College he remained through the Junior year. He then took the full theological course at the New Brunswick Seminary and graduated in 1817. He was liecnsed to preach by the Classis of New Brunswick in 1817. He served the churches of Middletown and Freehold, N. J., as Pastor from 1818 until 1826, and the church at Freehold alone eight years more (1826-34). He was then Pastor in Poughkeepsie (1834-37) and later still at the Broome Street Church in New York City (1837-41). Upon the resignation of Dr. Milledoler, Dr. Van Vranken was elected by the General Synod as Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the New Brunswick Seminary. Here he served the remainder of his life (1841-61). He was also Professor of Moral Philosophy in Rutgers College from 1841 to 1846 and then Professor of the Evidences of Christianity and Logic from 1846 to 1860. He was a Trustee of Rutgers College from 1819 until 1840. Columbia College gave him the degree of S.T.D. in 1836. Dr. Van Vranken died June 1, 1861.

WILLIAM HENRY CAMPBELL.

Dr. Campbell was born in Baltimore, Md., September 14, 1808. He graduated from Dickinson College in 1828 and spent one year in Princeton Theological Seminary (1828-29). In 1831 he was licensed to preach by the Second Presbytery of New York. His first charge was in the Reformed Church of Chittenango, where he remained two years (1831-33). He then became Principal of Erasmus Hall Academy at Flatbush, Long Island. Here his ability as an educator displayed itself. After six years (1833-39) he returned to the pastorate and served the church at East New York (1839-41), and later the Third Church of Albany (1841-48). After three years as Principal of the Albany Academy (1848-51) Dr. Campbell was elected by the General Synod as Professor of Biblical Literature in the New Brunswick Seminary. He held this position twelve years (1851-63), at the same time serving Rutgers College as Professor of Belles-Lettres (1851-63) and for one year as Professor of Moral Philosophy (1862-63). In 1863 the Trustees of the college elected Dr. Campbell President. Here his greatest work was done. The endowment of the college was largely increased, the number of students was doubled, and several new buildings added to the equipment. Dr. Campbell also filled the Theodore Frelinghuysen professorship of Biblical Literature, Moral Philosophy and the Evidences of Christianity (1863-82). After nineteen years of service, he resigned the presidency, continuing, however, as Professor of the Evidences of Christianity for a few years longer (1882-86). In 1885 he was chiefly instrumental in organizing the Suydam Street Reformed Church in New Brunswick and served it as pastor until his death (1885-90). He received the degree of D.D. from Union College in 1844 and that of LL.D. from Lafayette in 1862. Dr. Campbell died at New Brunswick, December 7, 1890.

SAMUEL MERRILL WOODBRIDGE.

Dr. Woodbridge was born at Greenfield, Mass., April 5, 1819. He was the son of Rev. Sylvester Woodbridge, D.D., and the eleventh generation of ministers descended from Rev. John Woodbridge, a follower of Wyckliffe, who was born in England in 1493. Dr. Woodbridge graduated from the University of New York in 1838 and from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1841. He was licensed by the Classis of New York in 1841 and had charges in the Reformed churches at South Brooklyn (1841-50), Coxsackie, 2d (1850-53), and New Brunswick, 2d (1853-57). In 1857 the General Synod elected him Professor of Pastoral Theology, Ecclesiastical History and Church Government in the New Brunswick Seminary as successor of Dr. John Ludlow. For the first seven years of his professorship he was also Professor of Metaphysics and the Philosophy of the Human Mind in Rutgers College (1857-64). In 1865, upon the establishment of the fourth professorship, Dr. Woodbridge was relieved from teaching Pastoral Theology, but he continued as Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government until 1901. In that year he was made Emeritus Professor and continued as such until his death. Thus his connection with the Faculty of the Seminary lasted forty-eight years, the longest term of service of any professor in the history of the institution. Dr. Woodbridge received the degree of D.D. from Rutgers College in 1857 and from Union in 1858. Rutgers gave him an LL.D. in 1883. He published an "Analysis of Theology" which went through two editions (1872-73, 1882) and is still used as a text-book in the Seminary. He also published a "Manual of Church History" in 1895. Dr. Woodbridge died in New Brunswick June 24, 1905.

JOSEPH FREDERICK BERG.

Dr. Berg was born at Grace Hill on the island of Antigua in the West Indies, June 3, 1812. His father, Rev. Christian Frederick Berg of Denmark and his mother Hannah Tempest of England were Moravian missionaries. When four years old Dr. Berg was placed in the Moravian institution at Fulnic, England, where he remained nine years. In 1825 he was removed to the Moravian school at Nazareth, Penn. He taught Chemistry there when only 17 years old. He also studied Theology and was licensed to preach when 19 years of age. In 1835 he was installed as Pastor of the German Reformed Church at Harrisburg. After two years he declined a call to be Professor of Greek and Latin in Mercersburg College but accepted the pastorate of the Race Street German Reformed Church in Philadelphia. During his fifteen years here (1837-52) he took an active part in the controversy against the Mercersburg Theology. Wearied with the strife, he accepted a call to the Second Reformed Church of Philadelphia. Here he served nine years (1852-61), when the General Synod elected him Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the New Brunswick Seminary as successor of Dr. Van Vranken. At the same time he was Professor of the Evidences of Christianity and Logic in Rutgers College (1861-64), and later Professor of the Evidences of Christianity (1864-67). Dr. Berg had studied medicine while in Philadelphia and received the degree of M.D. from the Jefferson Medical College. He also received the degree of D.D. He was a Trustee of Rutgers College from 1860 to 1864. After ten years as Professor in the Seminary, he died July 20, 1871.

JOHN DeWITT.

Dr. DeWitt was born at Albany, N. Y., November 29, 1821. He was a son of Rev. John DeWitt, D.D., who was Professor of Biblical Literature at the Seminary from 1823 until 1831. The son graduated from Rutgers College in 1838 and from the New Brunswick Seminary in 1842. He was licensed by the Classis of New Brunswick and had charges in the Reformed churches at Ridgeway, Mich. (1842-44), Ghent, N. Y. (1844-49), Canajoharie, N. Y. (1849-50), and Millstone, N. J. (1850-63). In 1863 the General Synod elected him Professor of Biblical Literature in the New Brunswick Seminary as successor of Dr. Campbell. After serving in this capacity for twenty-one years (1863-84), a separate Old Testament professorship was established and Dr. DeWitt continued eight years more as Professor of Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Exegesis (1884-92). From the organization of the American Bible Revision Company he was an active member of the Old Testament section. He was also one of the few survivors of that company and was largely interested in the production of the American Standard Revised Version in 1901. He published "A New Rendering of the Psalms" which went through several editions (1884, 1886, 1891), and received the highest praise for its reproduction of the Hebrew parallelism in poetic English. He also published "What is Inspiration?", 1893. He received the degree of D.D. from Rutgers in 1860, the degree of LL.D. from Lafayette in 1882, and the degree of L.H.D. from Columbia in 1887. He died at Irvington, N. Y., October 19, 1906.

DAVID D. DEMAREST.

Dr. Demarest was born near Schraalenburgh, N. J., July 30, 1819. He was the son of Daniel P. Demarest. In 1837 he graduated from Rutgers College and in 1840 from the New Brunswick Seminary. He was licensed to preach by the Classis of New Brunswick in 1840. For one year he was Assistant to Rev. James Romeyn, S.T.D., in the Reformed Church at Catskill (1840-41). After two years more in the church at Flatbush, Ulster County, N. Y. (1841-43), he accepted a call to become the first pastor of the Second Reformed Church of New Brunswick. Here he served nine years (1843-52). Then followed thirteen years as pastor of the church at Hudson, N. Y. (1852-65). In 1865 the General Synod elected Dr. Demarest the first occupant of the professorship of Pastoral Theology and Sacred Rhetoric in the New Brunswick Seminary. Here he served thirty-three years (1865-98). He was a Trustee of Rutgers College for forty years (1858-98). In 1858 he was President of the General Synod and from 1862 until 1871 he was Stated Clerk of the General Synod. In 1857 the College of

New Jersey gave him the degree of D.D. and in 1892 Rutgers College gave him an LL.D. He published "The History and Characteristics of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church" in 1856 and rewrote and republished it in 1889. He was also one of three editors of the Centennial Volume of the New Brunswick Seminary in 1884. Dr. Demarest died at New Brunswick, June 21, 1898.

ABRAHAM BROOKS VAN ZANDT.

Dr. Van Zandt was born in Schenectady, N. Y., November 17, 1816. He graduated from Union College in 1840 and studied two years in Princeton Theological Seminary (1840-42). ## TEMPORARY ASSISTANTS.

PETER STUDDIFORD.

Mr. Studdiford was born in New York City in 1763. He graduated from Columbia College in 1786 and received the degree of A.M. from that institution in 1787. At the same time he studied Theology with Dr. John H. Livingston and was licensed to preach by the Christian Synod of Dutch Reformed Churches in 1787. He served the Reformed churches of Readington and Bedminster together from 1787 until 1800 and the church of Readington alone from 1800 until his death in 1826. Upon the death of Rev. John M. Van Harlingen, D.D., in 1813, Mr. Studdiford was Instructor in Hebrew in the New Brunswick Theological Seminary until the close of the seminary year (1813-14). He was a Trustee of Queen's College from 1788 until 1826. He died November 30, 1826.

JOHN SCOTT MABON.

Mr. Mabon was born in the parish of Bowden, Roxbury County, Scotland, January 20, 1780. His parents were George Mabon and Margaret Tillie. Their son graduated from Union College in 1806 and throughout his life he was distinguished as a teacher. In 1806-07 he taught in Erasmus Hall Academy in Flatbush, Long Island, and in 1810-11 in Brooklyn. He graduated from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1812 and was licensed to preach by the Classis of New Brunswick in the same year. Yet he never accepted a permanent charge. He was Tutor in Union College in 1814-15. In 1818 he accepted an invitation to become the head of the Grammar School at New Brunswick and continued in this position until 1825. During this period Queen's College was closed for lack of funds. Thus the Grammar School and the Theological Seminary were the only institutions of the Reformed Church in New Brunswick. Mr. Mabon was the only teacher in the Grammar School and in this capacity he prepared many young men for the Seminary. For one year he also served as Instructor in Hebrew and Greek in the Seminary (1818-19). After leaving New Brunswick he taught at Morristown, N. J. (1826-28) and in Brooklyn (1828-30). For the last fourteen years of his life he conducted a private school at Hackensack, N. J. (1835-49). He was ordained by the Classis of New Brunswick in 1828. Mr. Mabon died April 27, 1849.

GEORGE WASHINGTON BETHUNE.

Dr. Bethune was born in New York City, March 18, 1805. His parents were Divie Bethune and Joanna Graham. Their son graduated from Dickinson College in 1823 and studied at Princeton Theological Seminary two years (1823-25). For a year he was a missionary among the slaves at Savannah, Georgia. He was ordained as an evangelist by the Second Presbytery of New York in 1827. All his pastorates were in the Reformed Church. He served the church at Rhinebeck three years (1827-30), and that at Utica four years (1830-34). Then he accepted a call to the First Church of Philadelphia. After three years here (1834-37) he became Pastor of the Third Church in the same city and remained there twelve years (1837-49). He was the first pastor of the Church-on-the-Heights, Brooklyn (1851-59). After serving two years as Associate Pastor with Dr. Abraham R. Van Nest of the Twenty-first Street Church in New York City (1859-61), his health compelled him to resign. He was devoted to the institutions of the Reformed Church and was Lecturer on Pulpit Eloquence in the New Brunswick Seminary in the year 1857-58. He was counted one of the most distinguished preachers of his time. He received the degree of D.D. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1838. His Lectures on the Heidelberg Catechism were published in 1864. Going to Italy for his health, he died at Florence, April 28, 1862.

TALBOT WILSON CHAMBERS.

Dr. Chambers was born at Carlisle, Penn., February 25, 1819. His ancestry was Irish on his father's side and German on his mother's side. He studied two years at Dickinson College (1830-32) but graduated at Rutgers in 1834. He studied one year at the New Brunswick Seminary (1834-35) and one year at Princeton Seminary (1836-37). Then he taught for two years in the South (1837-39), and was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Clinton, Miss., in 1838. He was ordained by the Classis of New Brunswick in 1840. For one year he was Stated Supply (1839-40) and for nine years Pastor of the Second Raritan Church of Somerville, N. J. (1840-49). Then he accepted a call to be one of the ministers of the Collegiate Church of New York City. There he remained until the end of his long life (1849-96). Dr. Chambers held many positions of usefulness and honor. He was a member of the Old Testament Revision Company, President of the Alliance of Reformed Churches (1892-96), President of the General Synod (1863), President of the Board of Foreign Missions (1888-96), Trustee of Rutgers College (1868-96), and Trustee of Columbia University (1881-96). He was Vedder Lecturer in 1875 and at various times he was Instructor in New Brunswick, Princeton, Union, Hartford, Allegheny and Lane Seminaries. At New Brunswick he was Instructor in Didactic and Polemic Theology in 1877 and Instructor in New Testament Exegesis in 1883-84. He received the degree of S.T.D. from Columbia in 1853 and that of LL.D. from Rutgers in 1885. Dr. Chambers was a voluminous but very careful writer. His published volumes are a Memoir of Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen, LL.D. He died in New York City February 3, 1896.

EDWARD TANJORE CORWIN.

Dr. Corwin was born in New York City July 12, 1834. He was the son of Edward Caldwell Corwin. The son graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1853 and from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary in 1856. He was licensed to preach by the Classis of Bergen in 1856 but remained as Resident Graduate at the New Brunswick Seminary one year more (1856-57). Then he was ordained by the Classis of Paramus (1857) and served as Pastor of the Paramus church six years (1857-63). After this he was Pastor of the church at Millstone for twenty-five years (1863-88). He was Rector of Hertzog Hall at the New Brunswick Seminary for seven years (1888-95), and Pastor of the church at Greenport, N. Y., two years (1895-97). On several occasions Dr. Corwin was temporary instructor at the Seminary. In the years 1883-84, 1889-90 and 1890-91 he was Instructor in Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis and in 1892 in New Testament Exegesis. In 1891 he was elected President of the General Synod. In 1897-98 he went to Holland as agent of the General Synod to collect Ecclesiastical Documents relating to America. Rutgers College gave Dr. Corwin the degree of D.D. in 1873 and that of Litt.D. in 1911. He has written extensively on the History of the Reformed Church and has compiled a large amount of historical material. He has published four editions of the Manual of the Reformed Church in America (1859, 1869, 1879, 1902), a volume on The Millstone Centennial (1866), another on the Corwin Genealogy (1872), a History of the Reformed Church in America in the American Church History Series (1895), the Ecclesiastical Records of the State of New York (1901-06), and a Digest of Synodical Legislation (1906). He was also one of the three editors of the Centennial Volume of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary (1884).

ABEL HENRY HUIZINGA.

He was Pastor of the church at New Paltz, N. Y., from 1886 until 1894. Then he was Adjunct Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis at McCormick Theological Seminary (1894-96). Returning to the pastorate he served the church at Fishkill nine years (1896-1905). During a year's absence of Dr. Raven, Dr. Huizinga was Instructor in Old Testament Languages and Exegesis in the New Brunswick Seminary (1902-03). He wrote extensively for theological reviews, chiefly on exegetical subjects. Dr. Huizinga died September 11, 1905.

MANCIUS HOLMES HUTTON.

Dr. Hutton was born in New York City, October 13, 1837. His father, Rev. Mancius Smedes Hutton, D.D., was a distinguished minister of the Reformed Church in New York. The son graduated from the University of New York in 1857. He studied two years at Union Theological Seminary (1857-59), but graduated from the Seminary at New Brunswick in 1860. He was licensed by the Classis of New York in 1860 and took a post-graduate year of study at Union Seminary (1860-61). He had but two pastorates, one of fifteen years at Mt. Vernon, N. Y. (1864-79), and one of thirty years in the Second Reformed Church of New Brunswick, N. J. (1879-1909). Dr. Hutton was President of the General Synod in 1888 and President of the Board of Foreign Missions from 1896 until his death in 1909. During the absence of Dr. Gillespie on leave in 1907 he was Instructor in Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Exegesis in the New Brunswick Seminary. Rutgers College gave him the degree of D.D. in 1879. He died in New Brunswick, N. J., December 19, 1909.
